

We can share our experiences...

We can feel our souls...

We can keep our attention...

We need our brave...

We can wake up our giant...

We can fly.. Fly.. Fly...

We meet together in a part of peace, a spot of light and a touch of kindness...

Yes we can.

Who says we can't?

Who stopped us?

Who can stop us .. Who can separate us ..

Who can disperse us .. As long as we are together ..

We walk together .. Laugh together ..

We think together ..

We love, love and love ...

and we give love to everyone ..

Until now, love is still free ..

I fear that one day .. we will search for love and we will not find it ..

and this day will not come as long as we live together ... we live together ..

together forever.
